DON'T KILL THE BIRDS.

A heavy penalty attaches to killing redbirds, robins, wrens, mockingbirds and other insectivorous birds, and persons who have been in the habit of slaying these species of birds should take warning. No defense can be pleaded, such as destroying fruit, etc. It is a fine regardless of where or on whose premises the birds are found.

CHEERFUL NEWS FOR AUTOISTS

An Authority Predicts Gasoline May Reach Forty Cents Per Gallon.

Cincinnati.—Some rather curious statistics were brought forth at the convention of the American Chemical Society here for the benefit of automobilists. In his address on "Some Economic Phases of the Use of Gasoline," Prof. Benjamin T. Brooks, of the Bureau of Mines, Washington, declared that gasoline is rapidly approaching the 40-cent a gallon mark, at which point Prof. Brooks declared alcohol would be an active competitor.

He estimated the present annual production of gasoline in America to be twenty-five million barrels of forty-two gallons each and that it is behind the demand made on it by the motor vehicles, dry cleaners and various industries. To replace this amount of gasoline by 96 per cent. alcohol made from corn would require 450,000,000 bushels, Prof. Brooks said.

"THE BONDAGE OF ILLITERACY"

Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, Whose Moonlight Schools in Rowan County Worked Modern Miracles, Spoke of Her Work

Explains Plan and Scope of Methods Which Are Now Spreading To Every State

Shall a woman of the instinctive grace, culture and ability of Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart be denied the ballot, while illiterate white men and Negroes have the full voting franchise? In heaven's name, No!

Only a small audience greeted Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart last evening at the High School auditorium, and when Mrs. Abner Rowd, president of the Mason County Woman's Club presented the noted woman to the fifty people present it was 8:35 o'clock.

Mrs. Rowd of course praised Mrs. Stewart and her great work and said that monuments and museums have been erected to our heroes and heroines and that none were more worthy and sure of an enduring record and marble and bronze remembrance than Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart.

Mrs. Stewart is almost too well known personally to again write of her many claims of manner, magnanimity and influence of speech. She is earnest, able and eloquent and when one hears the story direct from her telling her native county, Rowan, it sounds, indeed like a chapter from a fairy tale.

"The Bondage of Illiteracy!"

She spoke with great force and effect of her plan of work and how she enlisted an educational army of hundreds of teachers and near-teachers and how in two brief years she and her assistants wiped the darkness of ignorance off the Rowan County map; how, when she began there were 1154 grown people in her county who could neither read nor write and that when the campaign ended there were only 22.

Is there a single man or woman in this world who ever accomplished a thing like this?

"Moonlight Schools," she declared were started to reach the class of people who imagine they have no time for education in the day time. They are enabled to travel to the school houses by moonlight and take lessons for two hours. Her results have been marvelous as the lantern slides exhibiting scenes of her work plainly showed.

At the beginning of her address Mrs. Stewart complimented Mason County as a center of education and declared that Miss Yancy's "Consolidated Schools" were one of the most advanced steps in modern methods of education.

She declared that Mason County was always inspiring to the scholar and teacher and that she now fully hoped and expected that the 1154 illiterate white and colored people in Mason County would within the next year be reduced to a minimum.

The "Moonlight" system of wiping out illiteracy was now being adopted in over a dozen States and that the time is now ripe for all the counties of Kentucky to take up the work and complete the educational organization for such a campaign as we have never seen before.

She also paid a very high compliment to Hon. Stanley F. Reed, Representative from Mason County in the Kentucky Legislature and said that his work at Frankfort in behalf of education easily put him in the lead in this respect and that he was the very head and front of every move and every good law to advance the school and colleges of Kentucky.

While Mrs. Stewart was here she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Darlington E. Fee of Sutton street and at 3:30 yesterday afternoon the distinguished lady was given a very beautiful reception at the Maysville Public Library over two-score of this city's leading women meeting her.

Delightful fruit, punch and wafer confections were served. Mrs. J. Foster Barbour, Miss Harriette Cochran, Miss Eliza Richeson and Miss Lottie Berry presiding at the table.

Eleven people burned to death in a New York boarding house.

The buffalo of the United States and Canada now number about 3,000.

West End Property for Sale

We have for sale some very desirable homes on West Second St., also some vacant lots.

Frame house of eight rooms at No. 478 West Second St. This house is modern throughout. We think the best house in Maysville at the price we are offering it for.

Brick house of seven rooms No. 640 West Second St. We can't see why one would want to build, when you can buy a home as complete as this one for the price we have on this place.

Frame house of six rooms, No. 450 W. Second St. This house has gas, and is not a high priced home. If you want a medium priced place let us tell you of this home.

The home of Mr. D. A. Emmitt on West Second St., with about one and one half to two acres of ground. Mr. Emmitt has bought a farm and wants to sell this home, therefore we have the price absolutely right on this property.

One has only to look about to see the great improvements that are going on in the West End, so why not take advantage of the situation, and buy a home in the section of the city where property is advancing?

Savorless Salt.

Nobody likes a weakling. A namby, pamby church member who has neither conviction nor purpose, is about as disgusting an object as one can find. If they ever had any salt that seasoned their Christian lives, and made them worth while they lost it. Jesus says the saltiest Christian is worthless. Has Maysville any of these backboneless, pink-blooded creatures who claim to be church members? You let it be announced that some real hard work is to be done for the church and then see how conspicuous these persons are by their absence. They are so tired or haven't the time, don't they know, because of the many social demands made of them, that they really can't help. The fact of the matter is, their Christian zeal is as such a lowebb that the church could die before they would do any thing like real work to save it.

The other day a man went into a church in this county to get a society leader. His name is on the church roll as one of its members. When the collection basket came around he fished a dime out of the larger change and gave it to the Lord. He was serving the Lord—he was. But this same man spent more than that for the cigars he bought yet he thought he was supporting the church. He remembered how they wanted to repair the church and asked for a few dollars which he said he could not spare. But he bought a Sunday driving horse for his own pleasure and represented himself as a man of some standing. Jesus says that as far as the usefulness of this kind of a person in church work is concerned, you might just as well cast them out as savorless salt. Thank God, there are scores who will pay the price to make the cause of Christ a success in their community.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad.

It is the Sign of the Times.
